

Questions Jesus Asks #5 “Insight without Sight” Mark 10:46-52

An Insistent Appeal

Mark 10:46-48 - Jesus was coming out of o____ Jericho and toward n____ Jericho, an impressive city built by Herod the Great.

Matthew 20:30 claims there were t____ blind men, while Mark and Luke focus only on o____, Bartimaeus. Mark may have given his name because he was k_____ to the Christians at that time.

Bartimaeus was shrieking, “Jesus, S____ of D_____, have pity on me!” That phrase was only used of the Messiah.

1 Peter 1:8 - May we be like Bartimaeus, who love and believe in Jesus even though we cannot s____ Him.

An Intriguing Approach

Mark 10:51 - Jesus asked Bartimaeus, “What do you want me to d____ for you?” He wanted Bartimaeus to a_____ his need.

John 5:1-9 - Jesus asked the invalid, “Do you w_____ to get well?”
Some would rather be a v_____, having others care for them.

An Insightful Answer

Mark 10:51 - Bartimaeus said, “Rabbi, I want to s_____.” The term “Rabbi” expressed Bartimaeus’ f_____.

Mark 10:52 - Jesus said literally, “Your faith has s_____ you.”
More than restoring his sight, Jesus saved his s_____.

James 4:2 - “You do not have because you do not a_____ God.”

Mark 10:52 - Bartimaeus became a f_____ of Jesus.

Mark 10:35-40 - James and John had a different a_____ to Jesus’ question. How would you answer Jesus’ question?
