“Come, But Think It Over First”

Luke 14:25-33

The Uncompromising Demand

Luke 14:25 - When it comes to personal discipleship, Jesus is more interested in q_____ than in q_____.

A “disciple” is one who learns from a master, much like an a_____ in our times.

There is no difference between a disciple and a C_____.

Luke 14:26 - When Jesus used the word “hate” He did not mean intense hostility but rather to “love l_____.”

Matthew 10:37-38 - We cannot love our family m_____ than Jesus.

Luke 22:42 - We should pray, “Not my w_____, but Yours be done.”

John 15:20 - “If they p_____ Me, they will you, too.”

The Underlying Decree

Exodus 20:3 - In the first of the Ten Commandments, God commands that He have f_____ place in the lives of His people.

1 John 5:21 - “Keep away from anything that might take God’s p_____ in your hearts.” That is the meaning of an idol.

The Ultimate Decision

Luke 14:28-33 - Jesus wants us to count the c_____ of discipleship.

We are not to let things p_____ us, but hold them loosely.

We are stewards of all we have, not o_____. God owns it all!

Jesus demands unconditional s_____ to His lordship.

You are either a loyal d_____ of Jesus Christ or you are a lost s_____. There is no middle category.
